Learning To be Good
Neighbors

God's Gang is hosted by Sterry Church for all the kids of our community.

What is God's Gang?

God's Gang is an afterschool program where children 5 years of age thru 6th grade learn to be good neighbors as Jesus has taught us.

God's Gang meets on Wednesday's from 3:30-6:30 p.m. at Sterry Memorial Presbyterian Church. We are located at 28531 HWY 18 in Roswell. God's Gang starts in September and goes through the first two weeks in November. We break for the holidays and resume the the third week in January.

Upon arrival, nutritious snacks are served, followed by recreation and homework time. The students participate in crafts, organized recreation, music, Bible study, and community dinner.

Fees?

God's Gang is a ministry of Sterry Church. There are no fees charged for God's Gang, but we encourage a voluntary donation collection at dinner to help cover the cost of the meal and crafts. Donations to "Sterry Church" are tax deductible.

A Little about Sterry Church

You are welcome to visit Sterry Church any time. Sunday worship begins at 10:30AM. Visit us on the web at www.sterrymemorial.org for information about our upcoming events and projects.

Sterry's new pastor is Nathan Lewis, who would love to meet you and assist you.

About 100 years ago, the new congregation in Roswell honored a beloved local farmer, by naming the church after him. Sterry Memorial Presbyterian Church! He must have been a good neighbor!
